The Brand

Voyagr began as a spark. One traveler. One story. One person refusing to stay small in a world that felt overwhelmingly large. As a solo traveler and study abroad student, he searched for a community that felt real, safe, and energizing. When he could not find it, he created something bigger than himself.

We are a bold movement of travelers who explore loudly. We bring energy into every city we step into. We are not quiet and we are not neutral. We are globally wanted and globally present. Cult-like in spirit. Unified in purpose. Driven by connection.

The Mission

Voyagr blends boldness with meaning. Safety is our foundation. Authenticity fuels our culture. Community brings our world to life. We believe that cities are not just destinations. They are arenas for connection. They are places where stories collide and strangers become unforgettable.

Voyagr is more than an app. It is a global movement of adventure seekers who live loudly, travel fearlessly, and crave community at every stop. We turn cities into playgrounds. We turn travelers into friends. And we turn the world into a place where everyone can feel globally wanted.

We are bold and unapologetic.
We move with intention.
We create energy everywhere we go.

Target Audience

Voyagr is built for the 18 to 35 explorer who refuses to blend in. The solo traveler. The student stepping into a new country for the first time. The adventure seeker who wants more than just pictures. They want people, memories, and a sense of belonging that follows them across continents.

LOGO

Our logo is the most recognizable symbol of who we are. It carries our personality with clarity and confidence. Every time it appears, it sets the tone for the brand experience.

Logo

Wordmark

A logotype is the most common term for a brand's graphic representation, although it actually only refers to distinctive style of letters, abbreviations or words. Logos means word, therefore, a logotype is the visual representation of a brand based on a word or collection of words.

Voyagr's logo typeface is Polymath, a modern sans-serif designed by Oh No Type, that conveys a sense of solidity and consistency. It has been modified with rounded corners to create a balanced and contemporaty feel suggesting a friendly, minamilist and modern look.

This typeface has been modified specifically for the brand and it shouldn't be used for anything else.

The logo must be used as it is, and should never be written typographically, created from scratch or changed.

Please refer to the chapter "Typography" to see the official brand's typefaces that should be used for design and writing purposes.

Logo

Clear Space

To ensure legibility and preserve the brand's impact, a minimum clear space must be maintained around the logo.

This protected area separates it from any competing visual elements, such as other logos, text or imagery, that could compromise its clarity or weaken its presence. The clear space scales in proportion with the logo and should, as a general rule, measure at least one symbol-height unit on all sides.

Logo

Minimum Size

The logo must not be reproduced smaller than 1,3cm or 0.5 inch in width for print, or 36 px in width for digital applications. Going below these minimum sizes compromises legibility and diminishes the brand's visual impact and recognition

Font Weights

The typography offers a range of weights, but we use them with clear intent of creating a consistent tone and hierarchy across applications / formats.

Two weights form the core of our typographic system: Light and Medium.

Medium
This is our main choice for headlines, titles, and key messages. It adds presence and emphasis, making sure important content stands out.

Light
This is our default weight for all running text. It offers the optimal readability for paragraphs, captions, and any long-form content.

Regular, and Semibold
These other weights are secondary. They should only be used as alternatives when you face technical or production constraints.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Our photography captures the energy, authenticity, and spontaneity of real moments. It reflects a lifestyle that feels lived-in, unfiltered, and emotionally genuine. The imagery avoids perfection in favor of movement, personality, and atmosphere, creating a visual world that feels alive.

Photography

Rather than polished studio setups, our photography embraces imperfect moments—tilted angles, busy environments, and raw emotion. This intentional looseness makes the brand relatable, spontaneous, and visually distinctive.

Authentic Human Moments
Our imagery celebrates real people and real interactions. Subjects appear candid, expressive, and comfortable, often caught mid-laugh, mid-motion, or mid-conversation. This approach communicates community, warmth, and shared experience.

Youthful, High-Energy Spirit
The photographs often depict dynamic social scenes such as friends eating together, celebrating, dancing, or exploring. The mood is upbeat, casual, and playful, reflecting a brand that is social, expressive, and culturally aware.
